Documents for a claim

What is usually needed for a life, health or accident claim.

> Every insurer has its own claim form and may ask for something more. This list helps you gather early what is asked for almost every time.

For every claim

- [ ] The policy number
- [ ] The insurer's claim form, filled in and signed
- [ ] A copy of the claimant's ID card or passport
- [ ] The account details for the payment, as the form asks for them

Hospital and medical costs

- [ ] The hospital discharge report
- [ ] A medical report with the diagnosis
- [ ] Itemised invoices and receipts
- [ ] Prescriptions and test results related to the case
- [ ] The GESY referral, if there is one

Accident

- [ ] A short description: when, where and how it happened
- [ ] A medical report on the injury
- [ ] The police report, if the police were involved
- [ ] A certificate of incapacity for work, if you claim an allowance

Death of the insured person

- [ ] The death certificate
- [ ] A medical certificate of the cause of death

- [ ] The beneficiaries' ID documents
- [ ] If no beneficiaries were named, the inheritance or estate papers that will be asked for

Tell the insurer as early as you can: many policies have deadlines. Keep copies of everything you hand in. If you are my client, call me before you send the documents and we will go through them together.
