My yearly insurance check

Ten questions to go through once a year, so your cover still fits your life.

> Set a reminder once a year, for example on your birthday, and go through the list with your policies in front of you.

Your life

- [ ] Has anything changed in the family: marriage, a child, divorce, a child who left home?
- [ ] Has your job or income changed?
- [ ] Did you take out, pay off or refinance a loan?

Your cover

- [ ] Are the beneficiaries on your life policies the people you want today?
- [ ] Is the sum insured enough for the loans and the family's needs?
- [ ] Do you know your health plan's annual limit, its excess and what it does not cover?
- [ ] Is any cover duplicated, or is there a gap no policy covers?

Costs and paperwork

- [ ] Are the premiums still comfortable for your budget?
- [ ] Have you kept the premium certificates for your tax return?
- [ ] Does someone close to you know where the policies are and whom to call?

If you answered "no" or "I don't know" to any question, a review is worth it. Bring your policies and we will look at them together, with no commitment.
